

Planning Work - 1

Do you make Plans for your Homeland or Community?

Some people like making plans. Every day they have an idea of what they want to do.

Why do you make Plans for your Homeland or Community?

You need a reason to make a plan. You may have a budget for a program so you need a plan to use the money.

How do you make Plans for your Homeland or Community?

You talk to the people in your Homeland or Community about ideas of what they want to do. You get other peoples' ideas and this helps you with your ideas. When you write the final ideas on paper you begin to make a Homeland or Community plan.

What happens to the Plans made for your Homeland or Community?

You need to keep the plans in a safe place so you don't lose them. If you have a good memory you can keep the plans in your mind. If you do this, always tell others about them.

How do you make Plans happen in your Homeland or Community?

You need to supervise the people who do the work to make the ideas happen in the plan. You also need people who know how to do the work.

Planning work is a very important work to do in your Homeland or Community. If you don't plan - Everything gets mixed up. If you plan well - Everybody in your Homeland or Community gets helped and everyone is able to help others.