

Anangu Pitjantjatjara Yankunytjatjara

A.B.N. 77 261 612 162

PMB 227 Umuwa via Alice Springs NT 0872

Phone: (08) 8954 8101 Fax: (08) 8954 8170

www.anangu.com.au

APY is seeking expressions of interest 'Casual Project Officer ' Land Management Program Area

You will work under the guidance of the Land Management Program Manager. You will liaise with Anangu, the IPA and the Warru Coordinators to coordinate the meetings for the IPA and Warru Steering Committees. You will also provide logistics, risk assessment and support planning for the remote Camps for Warru (4 camps) and threatened species (2 Camps).

You will support Land Management Planning days and trip preparation to events outside of the APY Lands.

You will also assist to develop an Anangu ranger to be a Malpa (Cultural advisor) and a potential future project officer for this role.

The position is based in Umuwa but you will be expected to travel across the lands to the different communities for setting up and supporting the meetings and camps.

It does require camping out and significant driving. 4 Wheel drive experience required.

The position is casual, housing is not included in the role.

Position is available for an immediate start until June 2023, extension of the position may apply dependent on funding availability.

Salary: Level 3: Salary in accordance with the APY Enterprise Agreement

Please supply a one page expression of interest, outlining your skills and experience and a copy of your resume to the officemanager@anangu.com.au

This position closes 3 March 2023.

Please contact the Officemanager@anangu.com.au for a copy of the Job and Person specification.

Please forward your expression of interest addressing the essential requirements with a short covering letter to officemanager@anangu.com.au by COB 3 March 2023.

Should you require further discussion about the position please contact Land Management Manger Neil Collins on 0417879104 or Neil.collins@anangu.com.au